Pricing:

Groups can choose either a full 3-hour staff-guided workshop, or a 1.5-hour workshop with an optional self-guided tour.

For a full 3-hour staff-guided workshop:
- 10–20 participants: $150
- 21–35 participants: $250
- 36–50 participants: $350

For a 1.5-hour workshop with an optional self-guided tour:
- 10 – 20 participants: $75
- 21 – 35 participants: $125
- 36 – 50 participants: $175

Questions? Contact the Public Education Department at oi-education@uchicago.edu

Educator Workshop by Request

Interested in scheduling a professional development workshop for your K-12 educator group to increase content knowledge about the ancient world and hone teaching skills? The Oriental Institute now offers Educator Workshops by Request to support educators’ needs. Workshops are available Tuesdays through Thursdays between 10 am and 3pm at the Oriental Institute. They range from 1.5 hours to 3 hours based on the participants’ choice.

Who can book the workshop?

Leaders or trainers of teacher education programs. The workshops are primarily designed for K-12 educators, librarians, and curriculum coordinators. We also welcome administration staff, independent teaching artists, and community educators.

What are the workshop theme selections?

- Inquiry & Discovery: Teaching through Archaeology and Primary Sources
- Ancient Art and Architecture
- Investigating Nutrition: The Advent of Agriculture in Mesopotamia (based on Project Archaeology curriculum)
- Investigating Shelter: Investigating a Neolithic Dwelling at Jarmo (based on Project Archaeology curriculum)

Learn more and make requests at oi.uchicago.edu/workshopsbyrequest