New And Developing Resources in 2005/2006

(Note: all Web addresses below are case sensitive)

Several Oriental Institute units and projects either updated existing pages or became a new presence on the Institute’s Web site during the past year.

Museum: The Robert F. Picken Family Nubia Gallery & The Marshall and Doris Holleb Family Gallery for Special Exhibits

Research Archives: Research Archives Catalog Online

The Oriental Institute’s online catalog of the Research Archives has received a completely new look (note the URL change below). Additionally, in order to further improve its usefulness, we have significantly increased the efforts of retrospective cataloging of material from before 1990. The total number of records stands at more than 207,000.

Individual Scholarship: Robert K. Ritner

A new article by Robert K. Ritner, entitled “The Lost Land of Nubia: Egypt’s Southern Neighbor in Africa” is now available.

Although Charles Jones is no longer the Head of the Oriental Institute’s Research Archives, he still actively maintains several vital electronic resources for ancient Near Eastern studies just as he had done during his tenure in Chicago. Thank you, Chuck, for your continuing service to the field and our faculty, staff, and students.

IraqCrisis

A moderated list for communicating substantive information on cultural property damaged, destroyed, or lost from libraries and museums in Iraq during and after the war in April 2003 and on the worldwide response to the crisis. A component of the Oriental Institute’s response to the cultural heritage crisis in the aftermath of the war in Iraq, this list provides a moderated forum for the distribution of information.
