

PUBLICATIONS

Any institute concerned with research will owe much of the value of its efforts to an effective publication program. The Oriental Institute has a remarkable publication record, in spite of the problems created by the technical character of so much of its material and by the unusual demands which the presentation of the material makes upon the printer.

Printing and publishing are normally handled for the Institute by the University of Chicago Press. A comprehensive catalogue of the Institute's publications is available upon request. It lists the publications in the following series:

- Oriental Institute Publications* (85 volumes to date)
- Oriental Institute Communications* (21 volumes to date)
- Assyriological Studies* (15 volumes to date)
- Studies in Ancient Oriental Civilization* (30 volumes to date)
- Oriental Institute Essays* (4 volumes to date)
- Materials for the Assyrian Dictionary* (6 volumes to date)

In addition to these, a number of Special Publications have been issued, several of them jointly with the Egypt Exploration Society. The University of Chicago Press also publishes works of a general nature written by members of the Institute staff. To take advantage of lower manufacturing costs and to provide more direct access to overseas markets, the Institute is currently having its Assyrian Dictionary printed in Europe.
