

IN MEMORIAM

Ira G. Marks
1921–2000

Ira was a perfect representative of the generation that saw Hyde Park through the changes of the last half-century, changes that have made the neighborhood such a unique and invigorating place. With his wife Janina, Ira long took an active interest in the Institute's work and development.
